

To Buy

All lots are placed in a viewing before the sale, in our Gallery “Arte Capital” - Brescia. Every lot is marked with a lot number, estimate and a short description. The estimate is only a preliminary valuation and therefore the lot may be sold over or under the estimate. Catalogues are for sale at Customer Services and also published on Internet.

To be able to bid you must be a client of ArteModerna.Com. New customers must apply not later than 24 hours before auction starts. Please note that applications for Internet bidding takes minimum 5 minutes to handle. All applications must contain a satisfactory reference to your bank, no credit card.

Absentee bids

Fill in the lot number and the highest amount that you are willing to pay on the bidding slip which can be collected in our auction rooms. Customert service will then bid on your account up to the amount which you have submitted, but never higher than is needed. This means that you have the possibility to buy significantly lower than your maximum bid, provided that no one bids against you and that the reserve is lower than your maximum bid. Absentee bids may be left with Customer Services or faxed through not later than 5pm the day of auction.

You can also place absentee bids on our website.

Bidding by telephone

Customers who wish to bid by telephone should make a request in writing to Customer Services not later than one day before the auction. Some form of reference will be required. The request should specify which lot(s) to bid for and at what telephone number the customer can be reached. When the bidding is about to start for a specified lot a representative of Customer Services will telephone the client who can then bid at the auction through the representative. This service is conditional upon the availability of telephone lines.

Online bidding

You can also participate in the bidding during the auction for Fine Art & Antiques, Modern Art & Design, Contemporary, Prints, Fashion and Rare Books, Maps & Manuscripts via a computer.
